INFLUENCE OF THE FIXED POINT SUBGROUP
IN GROUP ACTIONS

Let G be a group acted on by a group A. The structure of the fixed point subgroup of A in G and the way it is embedded in G becomes very restrictive and hence informative about the structure of G.

With this talk I aim to present an ongoing research concerning the structure of a finite group admitting a certain generalization of fixed point free action.